District Court.

The District Court met yesterday at 10 a. m., pursuant to adjournment, and transacted the following business

State of Nevada vs. A. W. Maxwell; the following witnesses were examined for the defense: E. M. Crane, A. W. Maxwell, - Brown, J. H. Cassidy, E. Barrows, T. C. Poujade, H. Reed, Thos. Lilly and Pete Alstine. The following witnesses were examined in rebuttal: D. Cutts, E. M. Crane, D. M. Tyrrell. The case was then submitted without argu-ment. The Court read the instructions, after which the Sheriff was sworn to take charge of the jury, which retired at 2 o'clock to deliberate on a verdict. Solomon vs. Fuller; settlement of statement continued until December the Peck vs. Dodds; judgment of dismissal and settlement of cost bill referred to G. M. Sabin, referee.

A communication was received from the jary at 8 o'clock p. m. in the Max-well case, stating that it was impossible for them to agree upon a verdict, and asking to be discharged. The Court refused to discharge them until 10 o'clock this morning unless they agreed upon a verdict.

Court then adjourned until to-day at 10 n. m.

IN THE MAIL BAGS, -Yesterday morning our Postmaster, Charley Meyers, opened one of the mail bags and thrust his hand in, expecting to find plenty of mail, instead of that his hands struck something hairy, and he was at first under the impression that a new batch of monkeys had been mailed to Pioche, but on drawing it out found it was a seal

ACCIDENTALLY POISONED. - Yesterday afternoon, Jakey Barrett, a youngster about seven years old, while traveling around Pioche with a companion, came across some corrosive sublimate, which the companion told him was soda and that it was good to swallow. Jakey partook of it and the result is that he is expected to survive.

HIRO MAIL.-The Hiko mail arrived and departed yesterday.

WASHINGTON, Ga., Nov. 2.-At five severe shocks of earthquake, continuing some forty seconds. The second shock followed almost immediately after the first. The direction was a little west of sonth. There was a rumbling sound with a rolling motion, which shook the earth and houses, causing some alarm.

Pacific Coast.

Canson, Nov. 2 .- A large lodginghouse at Glenbrook, Lake Tahoe, was destroyed by fire last night. Twenty-five men were sleeping in the building at the time. A number of them narrowly escaped death by jumping from the upper story windows without their clothing. Several large mills in the vicinity came near being burned also.

Another attempt was made last night to burn this city, but the fire was discovered in time and subdued. There is a desperate lot of scoundrels here, who would not stop at anything. They are closely watched, and we may have a hemp neck-tie party soon.

Austin, Nev., Nov. 2 - The amount collected in this city up to noon to-day for the relief of the sufferers of the Virginia fire exceeds fifteen bundred dollars. Further contributions will probably swell the amount to seventeen hundred dollars.

During the month of October the Manhattan Silver Mining Company shipped through Wells, Fargo & Co. 138 bars of bullion, weighing 9,721 pounds and valued at $136,531.72.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.-A special from Virginia reports a storm of rain and snow there to-day which causes considerable suffering to those living in hastily constructed shanties. Contributions to the relief fund in this city amounts to $23,774.18, besides $10,000 from the Stock Boards.

The Nineteenth District Court renplaintiff in the Ruby Consolidated Mining Company, limited, vs. H. Heynemann, John R. Plater and others.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2 .- The Comtion and by-laws of the Bank of California, consisting of Judge Hagar, Geo. H. Howard, Wm. Sharon, H. W. Carpenter and Chas, Mayne met the stockholders to-day and reported that in view of the fact that the Bank would probably be reorganized at an early date with a new constitution and by-lays they deemed it inexpedient to make any change until then. It is intimated that the new organization will go into effect in about three months.

The Directors of the National Gold Bank and Trust Co. will meet at eight Block, also six inch and twelve inch this evening to take action on the affairs twist, for plug tobacco, can not be exof the Bank. The impression on the v. Watt, at Lee's drug store. street is general that resumption under the present management is impossible.

A man named Daniel Spring jumped from the Oakland ferry boat El Capitan this morning when near Goat Island and was drowned. He left his hat containing a note as follows: "I prefer death to insanity. 9 o'clock a. m., November 3d, 1875. Love to all. Forgive father." From other papers found in the hat he appears to have had a family in Topeka,

Weather still threatens rain.
